

SIG 14 - Conference General Track

We invite you to submit your research to explore the theme of Leading the Digital Transformation for the EURAM 22nd Conference.

We look forward to receiving your submissions.

T14_06 Management History, Theory, and Philosophy

Proponents:

Steffen Roth, La Rochelle Business School; Vladislav Valentinov, University of Halle; Julie Ricard, Université du Québec à Montréal; Augusto Sales, FGV / EBAPE; Klaus Laursen, University of Aarhus; Lars Clausen, UCL University College, Denmark

Short description:

The "Management History, Theory, and Philosophy" addresses historical and philosophical foundations and challenges of management and organization theory and practice. Knowledge of these foundations and challenges is vital for developing creative management solutions to persistent organizational problems, overcoming intellectual lockdowns, and shaping the futures of our disciplines.

Open to all paradigms, this track invites decidedly philosophical, historical, theoretical and conceptual contributions from scholars with backgrounds in management and organisation studies, sociology, economics, anthropology, history, philosophy, information science, communication studies, and further appropriate fields of sciences.
